President's News

Spring is in the air...We have so many events to partake in; hope to see you all on campus for an activity or two. Our Cadets continue to shine and we are so very proud of them. Rifle team, Orienteering, Academic Bowl, Book Study to name a few - these cadets are proving that this is more than just a class, they are becoming a cohesive group of fine, patriotic citizens! We couldn't be more happy to have each and every one of them wearing the Ardrey Kell Marine Corps JROTC logo! Keep the fine work coming!

Treasurer's Report

Our budget is looking healthy and spending is at a minimum. We are helping to fund our cadet, Simon Krauthamer, to attend the Interservice Rifle Championships in Alabama later this month, as well as purchasing some items for end of the year awards night. We have also earmarked some funds for our upcoming trip to Washington, D.C. in May, and funds for a senior cadet scholarship.

Academic Bowl Competition

Congratulations to cadets Callan Hazeldine, Fr., Ellie Norwine, Soph., Mitchell Roberts, Jr., Sean Tait, Sr., and Melody Alexander, Sr., for their 3rd place trophy in the CMS Academic Bowl. There were 20 teams and our cadets did wonderfully! Congratulations!

Cadet of the Month

Congratulations to: Graham Corrigan
Our February Cadet of the Month received a $25 Target Gift Card for his outstanding performance as a MCJROTC Cadet!

Book Study

Congratulations to Cadets Melody Alexander, Sean Tait, Ellie Norwine, Allison McCarthy, and Jill McCarthy for placing 2nd in the region for their Book Study presentation. Pictured are our cadets presenting a check for over $700 to the Director of the Matthews Free Medical Clinic! They also received a $600 donation from Mrs. McCarthy's employer and a $50 Target gift card.

Great work! You make us proud!

Rifle Team Update - Congratulations to our rifle team for their successful completion at the Marine Corps/Navy JROTC National Championship last month. A special shout out to cadet Simon Krauthamer who placed 9th overall and will be moving on to compete in the Interservice Championships being held in Alabama next week! Shootem' straight Simon!

A great time was had by all the Cadets and their dates at the annual Military Ball held at the Oasis Club in February! Looking good 😊

Look for information from Lt Col. Wint and 1st Sgt. Barksdale about the upcoming Washington, D.C. trip. It will be in May be we are awaiting the final date. Keep your ears and eyes open for the news!
